WM. BANDY.

A recent letter from E. A. Watson informs us he has been confined to the house for a month with a severe attack of asthma. Mr. Watson was for several years justice of the peace from the fourth district and retired of his own accord. He is a splendid citizen and has many friends over the county who deeply sympathize with him in his affliction.

O. H. Overdell arrived from Harriman Saturday and is planning to develop his 100-acre tract north of town near the new church school now in course of building. Mr. Overdell expects to sell very soon and return here for active work on his tract, which is undeveloped. He will probably build a residence on the property this fall. He sold his farm near Crossville two years ago and moved to Harriman, but finds after all that the opportunities here are better than most places.

WANTED—Some one to drill a well. Write or call Ida Hubbard, Crab Orchard, Tennessee. 9-21-21.

Mrs. E. J. Ducey and little son, "Jimmie" left Sunday, via Knoxville, for their home, Canonsburg, Pa., after a stay here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Bishop, of some ten weeks. They made a brief stay in Knoxville with her sister, Mrs. Cora B. Keyes, and other relatives.

Richard Kearley, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kearley, who enlisted in the army for one year arrived home Thursday discharged. He liked it well and may enlist again after visiting at home for a few weeks.

FOR SALE—A good heifer calf. Call at the Chronicle Office.

J. H. Bradley was in from Biglick Saturday. He states that his neighborhood has produced an unusually good corn crop and the largest crop of late hay ever known in that section.

In this issue H. C. Hendley announces for re-election to the office of Circuit Court Clerk. Mr. Hendley will have served one term by September 1, 1922, and he and his friends feel that his conduct of the office entitles him to another term as an endorsement. He has given close attention to the duties of the office thus far and it is easy to see how he might be expected to render more effective service the next four years, should the people favor him with another term. As is well known to many the office pays little; so little that no man with a family could live on the salary alone. Mr. Hendley being a single man is in a more favorable position in that respect. He will be active now on telling the people why he feels that he should be re-elected and what they may expect of him should they thus favor him.

J. W. Griffith, of Oliver Springs, was in town Saturday.

Mrs. Baxter Southard and children were visiting with relatives in Harriman from Friday to Monday.

Rev W. C. Creasman, of Spring City, has been engaged as pastor of the Baptist church. He, wife and child are expected to arrive October 1, and they will occupy the residence of Mrs. Martha Rea.

From information gained by inquiry of the farmers over the county, the potato crop in this county will be less than half of normal yield this year. In very few instances certain sections received rain when needed and the crop will be good, while in some sections the crop will be practically a total failure. The price of potatoes is expected to run high—possibly as high as $2.00 per bushel.

Mount Pisgah Royal Arch Chapter, U. D., held its second stated meeting on Monday, September 19. There were in attendance the following out of town visitors, J. H. McLister, P. G. H. P. who is official Lecturer for the Grand Chapter of Tennessee, Prof. W. W. Heckman, of Carthage, and Corry Smith, of Rockwood. Nine candidates were admitted to the mysteries of the Royal Arch degree. The new Chapter makes its debut with gratifying prospects of becoming a live factor in Masonic circles. An enjoyable supper was served at the Commercial Hotel at 7 p. m.

STRAYED—Solid black Essie boar, would weigh around 200 lb. when he left about 4 weeks ago. Slightly disfigured, has quite large tusks, not marked nor labeled. Will pay liberal reward if you will put him up and notify me. R. R. Dunbar. 9-21-21.

The Heffner-Vinson show gave its last show here Saturday night. The entire week they were here they had good attendance and the public generally was well pleased with the shows given. From the start to finish the shows were clean, orderly and of as high type as are usually found with such traveling aggregations and far better than many shows given in the cities. The people conducted themselves in such a manner as to be above reproach both during the plays and at other times. Those who choose to patronize the show had no cause to feel that they were giving their money for a poor or unworthy class of entertainment. They show this week at Cookeville.

Ray Rector and Ralph Watson arrived yesterday from San Diego, Cal., where they have been serving Uncle Sam in the navy for some months.

A. E. Payne has been confined to his home, four miles north of town, with kidney trouble. Owing to his advanced years—approaching 82—the disease taxes his strength greatly.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Loshbough left Friday for St. Joseph, Michigan, in response to information that the father of Mrs. Loshbough, H. Renfrow, was dangerously sick.

Clarence Loshbough left yesterday morning for St. Joseph, Michigan, in a car. He plans to visit with relatives and friends there for a time.

Geo. Carpenter was up from Clifty Friday visiting his son John Carpenter

C. L. Brown and wife were up from Clifty Friday doing some shopping. Mr. Brown is one of the most energetic and thrifty farmers of the Clifty neighborhood.

Remember to see me with your butter, eggs, vegetables and all kinds of barter before you sell; I pay cash for everything. W. A. Rector. 9-14-21

Sherman Selby and Geo. Tollett were up from Burke Friday. They report crops unusually good in the valley this season. Mr. Selby had a most splendid yield of clover having cut eight tons of hay from four acres actually weighed after being baled. He states that the corn yield is excellent also this year.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Reed, who have been visiting relatives and friends at Adona, Arkansas, for a few weeks, arrived home Monday morning. They drove there in their car and returned as far as Gordonsville where a broken spring caused them to leave their car and continued their journey home by rail.

FOR SALE—My residence in Crossville; also farm in suburbs, as a whole or will subdivide to suit purchaser. 8-7-21 C. E. Snodgrass

C. G. Black is arranging to build a 7-room house on his property north of town. It will be a frame building two stories with bath. He had planned to build a stone veneered building but being unable to secure the stone at a reasonable cost and some other difficulties, he decided to make it a frame house. He plans to have it ready for use the coming winter.

Mrs. Ernest Hughes received a telegram from Jacksonville, Florida, Saturday stating that her little daughter, Ernestine, was dangerously sick and to come at once. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes left Saturday afternoon for Rockwood in their car hoping to catch the fast train south. They were accompanied by Miss Joyce Snodgrass, who will pass the winter with her sister, Mrs. Johnson, in Birmingham, Alabama.

ESTRAYED—Two ewes, two lambs and one horned buck, button tags in right ear with letters "M. L. S." W. D. Harold, Crossville. 9-21-21

Paul Linde left yesterday for Nashville to attend the State Fair and to purchase supplies for his cabinet making business.

Some persons may be surprised to know that there are now residing in West Palm Beach, Florida sixteen people who were former residents of Crossville or are now. Their names are: Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Southard, Lieut. and Mrs. Elliot Underhill, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Washburn, S. C. Kearley, F. A. Franck, Will Dunbar, Bud Holeman, Baxter Southard, and Bird Agee.

M. C. and Lee Dunbar have secured the contract for painting the outside of the new M. E. church school that is being built two miles north of Crossville.

R. D. Godfrey, merchant near Clifty, writes as follows: "I am just returning from a trip to Dallas, Texas, for my mother, who has come to this county for an indefinite stay. I made a flying trip and must say Old Tennessee looks good to me; crops looked best in this state. I found 'times hard' the cry there; many letting their cotton rot and leaving the farms for public labor and those who can are seeking homes in other states." This Plateau section is the best part of Tennessee, all things considered. We have heard many persons talk much as does Mr. Godfrey and in every instance they return to this section much better satisfied after visiting other sections of the country.

CREAM STATION

A Cream Station is now installed in our store. We have all the necessary equipment for testing, weighing and shipping cream. We have the authority from the Nashville Pure Milk Co. to pay 30 cents per pound for butter fat and give their check in payment each week if so desired.

Many men have said they would go into the cream business if they could be assured that it would be permanent.

As to this, the cream man said to us that they would stick to us thru the beginning period and after that they anticipated no trouble, for there is practically no limit to the demand for cream. As for us, we have our business here and do not have to depend on the cream station for a job. We are willing to give it all the attention necessary and will stick to it. We are willing to do this and more in order to get the cream industry established in our county, because wherever the cream industry has been started it has proven to be the best farm builder the farmers have ever found. The importance of starting the cream business in our county cannot be too highly estimated. The timber is about all gone and the land is ready to be put under cultivation. What the people need is something out of which they can get CASH EVERY WEEK, and not have to wait till fall of every year. The cream business furnishes the cash and we want to urge that every farmer who can possibly do so begin to furnish a little cream. Do not hesitate on account of the amount. We will take a half gallon. We can ship less than a dollars worth of cream. Make a start. Furnish a little cream each week in order to get the business going and get ready as fast as you can to produce in a big way.

The day of receiving cream is WEDNESDAY OF EVERY WEEK. It cannot be accepted any other day. Bring your cream in time for it to be shipped on the afternoon train.

REED MERCANTILE CO.

W. T. Terry, of Putnam county, was here for the week-end to visit his daughter, Mrs. S. J. Horn and family.

Mrs. Max Dodd resigned her position as teacher at Oak Hill and has accepted a like position under her father, Prof. Frank March, at Sevierville, in the Sevierville High School. She went there last week to take up her duties. Mrs. March and children expect to go to Sevierville in a few weeks to make their home.

Dexter Southard plans to leave Thursday for Danville, Va., to enter Danville Military Institute for the ensuing year.

Senator Geo. W. Poague, Supreme Commander of the Knights and Ladies Order of the Red Cross, moved the papers, books and his personal library here from Dayton. The goods arrived yesterday and the Order will now have its headquarters located in pleasant quarters next to the office of Dr. W. A. Reed.

Pearson Hayes left yesterday afternoon for West where he met his wife and the went to Ashville, N. C. for Mrs. Hayes' health.

Lee Bandy and Roy Hoskinson, of Elmwood, Ill., who were here for some ten days visiting with relatives and friends, left Thursday for their home.

Quill and Beacher Brown were here from Sparta Sunday visiting friends. Quill Brown is of the firm of Brown Printing Company that does high class job printing and turns out the Sparta News, one of the neatest weeklies in this section of the state. Beacher Brown is clerking in a dry goods store in his home town. Both are sons of D. G. Brown, who will be remembered by many of our older citizens as trustee of this county some 35 years ago and also as a merchant.

Did you send that item of news to the Chronicle office last week? If not you may have failed to show your friend the proper courtesy or you may have failed to receive the notice due you or some member of your family for the editor may not have learned of it. Send us every news item possible and the Chronicle will be much pleased to get them.
